Delo, of the ninth ward, fairly entered upon his career, he was a coung man of twenty-four when the first Napoleon died. All the vast events of the nineteenth century have passed before his eyes. He is contemporary with the whole active life of the American republic, for he had probably made his first infant observations of men and things when George Washington passed away from life. He was a smart boy before a steamboat had ever plied a river, and a strong man before a railroad had been built anywhere in the world. He had entered upon his prime of life before some of the greatest modern inventions were even thought of. He was m old man of 64 when he succeeded his brother and became king of Prussia, and that was in 1861, when the war for the Union broke out and Grant, Thomas, Mc-Clellan, Meade, Hooker were all young men. My methods of business and ambition to maintain the high position I hold, as the most popular Clothier for the masses, is evidently highly appreciated. The liberal patronage I receive dispels the common habit of the average modern dealers, that in order to create trade, tricks and falsehoods are necessary accessories to a legitimate business. Flain facts, plainly stated, are my big hold, and here they are: I have a colossal assortment of the latest styles in Men's Cassimere and Worsted Suits in Frock. Sack and

Prince Albert, from $5 to $25; Special bargains in suits, $8, $9 and $10; boys' suits in every possible style and quality, 10 to 18 years, $3 and upward; special bargains in Boys' Suits, at $6.50. $7.50. $8.50 and $10. Children's Suits. largest line ever shown, size, 4 to 15 years, $1.25 up; special bargains in Children's Suits, at $3, $3.50 and $4; special bargains here means extra good value in these lines. Big stock of men's, boys' and child en's separate pants, 50c to $7; big stock of men's Furnishing Goods at very close figures, much cheaper than elsewhere. Hats, Caps, Gloves, Ties, etc. There is not an articla in my store marked for a bait. I mean to do a bigger business than ever before, and with one object in view. I am prepared with a larger stock and have marked all my goods at Astonishingly Low Prices, considering quality and styles. I solicit an inspection. I urge no one to buy, and all are treated with consideration. Every garment has the lowest selling price marked in plain figures. One price to all. Each article is warranted to be good value for the money paid, and to be Ten per cent, cheaper than the same quality can be bought for at any other clothing house in the city, no matter what others claim. In every case, when so desired, for any reason whatsoever, I cheerfully refund the money for any article bought at my store, on return of the goods in good condidition. Can you ask anything that is fairer? It always Pays to Trade with me.
